Game Strategy – Are you a man who has done it all? So why does it still feel like something's missing? The CEO of an international senior home care company found out rather late in life that mission work brings fulfillment.

2. What is something useful that you learned from viewing this episode that you can apply in your own life?

Workout Questions:

1. Larry was evangelized by another person that convinced him to convert to the Catholic faith. Cite an occasion when someone evangelized you either back to the faith or helped strengthen your faith.
2. Do you believe that each of us can, as Catholics, evangelize in the workplace, school, community, etc., without being pushy? How would you accomplish this?
3. Many Catholics either don't know how or are fearful about evangelizing. Cite some ways that you could evangelize: your immediate family and relatives, co-workers, neighbors, acquaintances in the community, at sporting events, school activities, etc.
4. Volunteering to help the less privileged is one aspect of evangelization. What type of charity work do you think would interest you?
5. Many people observe Christians who lack joy and say to themselves, why would I want to be a Christian? What is your attitude like at home, work, in the community? Do you think that people see you as a happy and content person?
6. We need to win people over before we can evangelize them. What are some fun things you do as a family that your children see that you can have some fun? What are some other fun things that you can do as a family?
7. Mentoring is another aspect of evangelization. So many young people are in desperate need for role models to mentor them. Can you name a few men in your life that mentored you? Explain. Are there any people in your life that you know are in need of mentoring? How can you help them?
